

Measure 4 | Initial Programs

Employment data show that nine of eleven program completers obtained full-time teaching positions in the content areas in which they were prepared. One completer is currently an ongoing substitute teacher, and the other completer obtained a corporate position not in the field of education.